European Day of Languages 2010
Children contributed to a whole school display focused around a map of the world. Children found out about a friend or family member who speaks another language. They made a 'flag label' to go on the display.
My Grandad lives in Spain. He speaks Spanish.

Lauren: H. Year 5
My great aunt lives in Germany. She speaks German. Cameron, year 6.
My cousin Sophie lives in Hawaii.
She speaks Hawaiian.
Eily Year 5.
Each class also made a banner focusing on different ways to say ‘hello’ from around the world.
